

The Council of Clinical Health Psychology Training Programs (CCHPTP) represents doctoral, internship, and post-doctoral training programs in Clinical Health Psychology. Initially established at the Arden House National Working Conference on Education and Training in Health Psychology in 1983, CCHPTP became re-commissioned in 2007 with the Tempe Executive Summit on Education and Training in Clinical Health Psychology. CCHPTP has played an active role in defining the professional competencies and addressing training issues in clinical health psychology. Additionally, CCHPTP is an active participant in the Clinical Health Psychology Specialty Council (under the leadership of Lloyd Berg, PhD, ABPP), that defines our profession for the internal purpose of specialty recognition and for the external purpose of educating regulating bodies and the general public.

Current Board of Directors:

Dwain Fehon, PsyD (Chair), Yale School of Medicine
Sharon Berry, PhD, ABPP (Ex-Officio, Past-Chair)
John Sellinger, PhD (Treasurer), VA Connecticut Healthcare System
Bernadette Heckman, PhD (Secretary), University of GA Counseling
Jaclyn Shepard, PsyD, University of Virginia
Rosemary Estevez, PhD, DBSM, Maj. USAF, Wilford Hall, Lackland Air Force Base
Mark Vogel, PhD, ABPP (Ex-Officio), Ascension Genesys Regional Medical Center

Trainee Representatives:

Doctoral: Zachary Magin, MS (University of Connecticut)
Doctoral: Cole Robinson, MS (University of Georgia)
Postdoctoral: Danielle Miller, MS, (Yale University School of Medicine)

Mission Statement: The Council of Clinical Health Psychology Training Programs (CCHPTP) promotes the advancement of graduate and post-graduate training in clinical health psychology with a commitment to multiculturalism, social justice, and integrated-care training that prepares health psychologists to deliver state-of-the-science and culturally-responsive services in a variety of research and clinical health care settings to meet the needs of diverse cultural and linguistic communities across the nation.

Recent History of Midwinter Meetings:

- Virtual (2024): “The State of Clinical Health Psychology Training: Strengths, Gaps and Paths Forward”
- San Diego (2023): “Healthcare for Transgender and Sexual Minority Individuals: Competencies, Ethics and Practice”
- Virtual (2022): “Training for the Future: From Clinic to Community via Population Health”
- Virtual Meeting (2021): “Training for Doctoral Practice at the High End”
- Austin, TX (2020): “Future Opportunities in Education & Research in Clinical Health Psychology”
- New Orleans, LA (2019): “Clinical Health Psychology: Best Practices in Competency Assessment”

Selected Activities:

- Participation in CRSSPP Reaccreditation Task Force for the specialty of Clinical Health Psychology.
- CCHPTP Connects Networking Event: May 24, 2024: “Reimbursement and Coding for Behavioral Health Services”.

- Attended and participated in the Society for Health Psychology's Education and Training Summit held in New Orleans, LA, January 13, 2024.
- CCHPTP Connects Networking Event: October 10, 2023: "Assessment in Clinical Health Psychology: Training Opportunities and Challenges."
- CCHPTP Connects Networking Event: June 2023: "Clinical Health Psychology Training Post-COVID: Where Are We and Where Are We Going?"
- CCHPTP Connects Networking Event: September 2022: "Balancing the Imbalance: Healthcare Provider Wellness and Burnout."
- CCHPTP Connects Networking Event: November 2021: "Code Blue for Health Care Professionals."
- CCHPTP Connects Networking Event: September 2021: "Clinical Health Psychology Training During the Transition From COVID: What Are You Doing Now?"
- Participation in Clinical Health Psychology Specialty Council along with Division 38, ABCHP, APAHC, and ACHP.
- Maintained liaison relationships with Division 38, ABCHP, APPIC, APAHC, SBM, COS.
- Participated in CCTC 2020 Conference on Social Responsiveness.
- Revised CCHPTP Bylaws to restructure Board and develop new membership categories.
- Identified clinical health training activities as part of the Taxonomy for Education and Training in Psychology.
- In collaboration with Division 38, responded to CoA's request for comments to Standards of Accreditation.
- Participated in the Inter-Organizational Work Group on Competencies in Primary Care Psychology.
- Programming at APA Annual Meeting in collaboration with Division 38, sponsored preconference seminar at Society of Behavioral Medicine, & programming at Society of Teachers of Family Medicine.
- Developed a competency model for clinical health psychology and extended the model to life-long competency development.
- Participation in Chairs of Clinical Training Council meetings and Education Leadership Conference and APPIC

Future Directions:

- Plan 2025 Midwinter Meeting: Tentatively scheduled for virtual (Spring 2025).
- Continue to focus on growing and engaging our membership.
- Continue with CCHPTP Connects networking events.
- Continued operationalizing clinical health psychology competencies, and movement toward evidence-based practice; address how competencies relate across the training spectrum; How to stay ahead in the field to keep Clinical Health Psychology relevant.
- Strategic Planning Process – connect to APA Strategic Plan regarding inclusion and health across all education levels.

Respectfully submitted,

Dwain Fehon, PsyD
CCHPTP Chair

September 2024 Report to CCTC